1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-3, 7, 9, 11-13, 17 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Davidson. Davidson discloses a post valve that attaches to gas cylinder including a valve body 12, an internal aperture that receives a valve actuator 22, a threaded extension 14, a gas inlet 16, and a valve body seat with a planar seat surface immediately above seal 38.

4. Claims 20-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Davidson in view of Holben et al. Davidson discloses a gas cylinder valve substantially as claimed but does not disclose a filter. However, Holben teaches another gas cylinder valve having a filter 162 for the purpose of removing contaminants from the gas stream. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the apparatus of Davidson with filter as, for example, taught by Holben in order to remove contaminants from the gas stream.

5. Claims 20-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Holben et al. Holben discloses a post valve that attaches to gas cylinder including a valve body 10, an internal aperture that receives a valve actuator 140, a threaded extension 50, a gas inlet 56 which is in fluid communication with and thereby aligned with the actuator aperture, a valve body seat with a planar seat surface immediately above seal 54 and a sintered bronze filter 162.

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Figure 6 of Borland teaches an actuated solenoid valve with an annular valve seat. However, the gas inlet orifice in Borland is also the internal aperture for receiving a valve actuator wherein there are not two aligned passages as claimed. Benson et al., Davenport and Behle teach other gas cylinder valves.

7. Claims 4-6, 8, 10, 14-16 and 18 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
